Avow to Host Free KonMari Workshop® for Naples Community

Learn about the art of home organization from a certified KonMari consultant

NAPLES, Fla. (April 5, 2024) – Avow is to host a KonMari Workshop on Wednesday, April 17, 2024 from 2:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. at 1095 Whippoorwill Lane, Naples, Fla. 34105 in the Ispiri Community Center. Based on the hit Netflix show featuring Marie Kondo, the workshop will teach the KonMari Method and sustainable practices behind the art of home organization. The workshop will be instructed by certified KonMari consultant, Dani Fusco.

“I have had a lifelong passion for bringing order to disorder,” says Fusco. “By combining my love of organization with helping others, I’m able to teach clients how to create a tidy, more efficient space, and how to keep it that way in the years ahead.”

The KonMari Method for home organization improves the functionality of physical spaces while examining the emotions and thoughts that compel people to keep or discard items. It is a categorical approach that helps individuals make mindful decisions when decluttering their homes.

At the workshop, Fusco will demonstrate KonMari organization and folding techniques. Attendees will have the opportunity to put these teachings into practice with clothes provided by Avow Treasures Resale Shop. Clothing will be available for purchase after the workshop.

This workshop is FREE and pre-registration is required. To RSVP or receive more information, call (239) 649-3683 or email foundation@avowcares.org.
