Avow Hospice Receives a $20,000 Grant from Moorings Park Foundation

Naples, Fla., August 25, 2021 – Avow Hospice announced today it received a $20,000 grant from Moorings Park Foundation to support its adult bereavement program.

"Since 1983, Avow has cared for Collier County's terminally ill residents and supported their loved ones with bereavement services," said Jaysen Roa, president and CEO of Avow companies. "We recognize a great need in our community for bereavement support for adults and children. By providing free grief and bereavement support for anyone in the community, our expert team is helping to improve the quality of life for those who have experienced a life-changing loss." Avow's cost in 2021 to offer the program is $355,800.

Support sessions for adults are available online and/or in-person at the Center for Grief Support on the Avow campus. All sessions are open to residents and visitors in Southwest Florida without cost. Monthly memorials are held virtually for remembrance. Groups are available for people who have suffered a similar loss or within a similar timeframe, such new widows/widowers, survivors of suicide or adults who have lost a parent. Avow also offers groups focused on the needs of caregivers, self-care such as spiritual health, chair yoga and other support groups fostering wellbeing and overall emotional health improvement. The full calendar events is available at avowcares.org/calendar/.

About Avow
Avow was founded in 1983 as Collier County's original, nonprofit hospice. Today, Avow's nonprofit companies provide palliative care consultations for adults facing chronic or serious illness and hospice care and bereavement support services for children and adults.
