Golf Tournament Raises More Than $22,000 For Local Charity

Avow and Royal Palm Golf Club tee off for golf tournament fundraiser

NAPLES, Fla. (May 6, 2024) – On Monday, April 8, Royal Palm Golf Club hosted a Pro-Am tournament to benefit Avow Foundation, raising more than $22,000 to support Avow’s mission to provide hospice, palliative care, and bereavement services to the community. Their collaborative efforts resulted in a successful tournament, attracting 76 professional and amateur golfers from clubs around Collier County. Participants showcased their skills on the picturesque greens while demonstrating their commitment to community philanthropy. Avow Board Director and Royal Palm Member Cindy Shingler, and her husband Jim, greeted guests upon arrival.

“Avow has been a significant force in the community and part of Royal Palm Golf Club for more than 20 years,” says Royal Palm Golf Club President Mark Shaw. “The membership is enthusiastic about rekindling its commitment to this compassionate organization and its services through the annual pro-am tournament and auction.”

The tournament raised funds through sponsorships, participant fees and auction proceeds that will significantly impact the patients and families served by Avow.

"We are thrilled by the support we received for the Royal Palm golf tournament fundraiser," says Avow President & CEO Jaysen Roa. "The generosity of participants and sponsors truly underscores the importance of coming together to support those experiencing some of life's most challenging transitions."
