Get Involved

Volunteer

Volunteers are an essential part of how Avow delivers care. Whether spending time with patients, supporting families, or lending a hand behind the scenes, volunteers help bring our mission to life every day.

Avow volunteers:

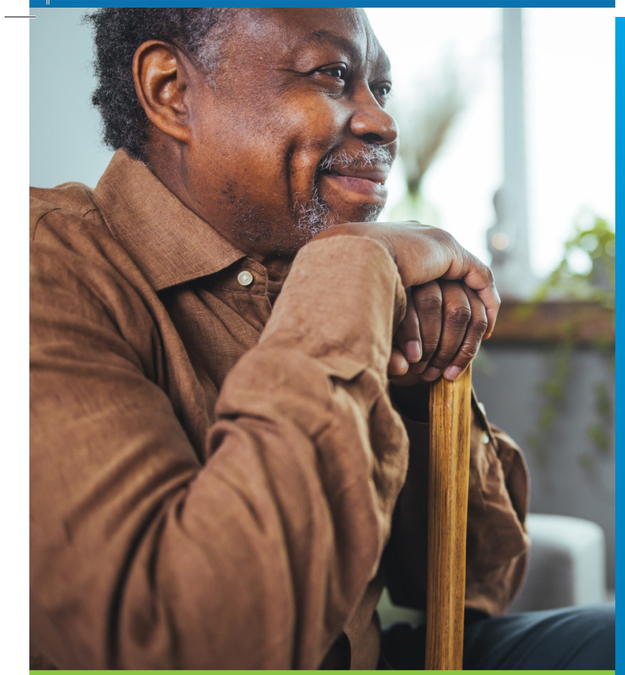
- Provide companionship and non-medical support to patients and families
- Assist with grief programs and community events
- Support Avow Treasures Resale Shop and administrative teams
- Receive comprehensive training and ongoing support

More Ways to Support

As a nonprofit organization, Avow depends on the generosity of our community to ensure that people receive the care and support they need. Every contribution strengthens our ability to serve Southwest Florida today and into the future.

You can support Avow by:

- Making a financial gift
- Shopping or donating at our Avow Treasures Resale Shop
- Becoming a volunteer



Home Health

Medicare-certified home health care helps people recover from illness, injury, or surgery in the comfort of their own homes. Avow's skilled nurses and therapists develop personalized care plans that promote recovery, independence, and confidence while coordinating treatments and medications.

Avow's home health program:

- Coordinates care with your healthcare providers
- Helps you regain independence safely at home

Palliative Care

Palliative care helps people living with serious illness manage symptoms and improve quality of life. It can be provided alongside treatments for your illness and works in partnership with your existing healthcare providers to support your physical, emotional, and spiritual well-being.

Avow's outpatient palliative care program:

- Offers in-office clinic appointments and house calls when necessary
- Helps manage pain and other symptoms
- Supports caregivers and families

Hospice

Hospice care focuses on relieving pain and other symptoms for people who are nearing the end of life, when comfort becomes the priority over curative treatment. Avow's interdisciplinary care teams support patients and families wherever they call home, helping manage medications, coordinate medical equipment, provide personal care, and offer emotional and spiritual support.

Avow's hospice care program:

- Provides care in patients' homes, or inpatient care at the Frances Georgeson Hospice House
- Offers music therapy, massage therapy, the PAWS pet therapy program, and specialized Veterans services

Grief and Loss Support

No one should have to face grief alone. Avow's professional grief counselors provide compassionate guidance free of charge to anyone in Southwest Florida, regardless of whether their loved one received care from Avow.

Avow's grief support program:

- Offers individual counseling and support groups
- Provides specialized programs for children, teens, caregivers, and other groups
